Exam Name	About Exam	Testing Window	Score
LonMark International Certified Professional Exam	For manufactures, integrators and end-users involved in the design, specification, integration, or maintenance of LONWORKS control networks.	All year	Scores are mailed at a latter date

LONMARK's Professional Certification Program—comprised of the LONMARK Certified Professional (LCP) and LonMark Certified System Integrator (LM-CSI)—has provided a comprehensive professional education and testing program for manufactures, integrators, and end-users involved in the design, specification, integration, installation, or maintenance of LONWORKS control networks.

This program establishes a proficiency standard to assure end-users that they have access to a resource pool of professionals with industry knowledge and experience. More and more end-users, project developers, specifiers, and planners are requiring LONMARK Certified Professionals for their projects because they are confident in their fundamental knowledge of LONWORKS technology and LONMARK Open Systems.
